2 Beneficiary designation

Complete this section to designate a beneficiary for your account. In the absence of a beneficiary designation, death benefits will be paid to your estate. It is important for you to ensure that you specify in your will to whom the death benefit should be paid.

The following caution is required by Manitoba law. It may also be applicable in other jurisdictions.

Caution: Your designation of a beneficiary by means of a designation form will not be changed or revoked automatically by any future marriage or divorce. Should you wish to change or revoke your beneficiary in the event of a future marriage or divorce, you have to do so by means of a new designation.

I revoke any previous beneficiary designations and name as beneficiary for benefits due on my death:

Quebec: if you name your spouse as beneficiary, please indicate if this person is your common law spouse. Otherwise we will deem this person to be your legal spouse.

Important where Quebec law applies: a legal (married or civil union) spouse beneficiary is irrevocable unless you indicate otherwise.

If you have an irrevocable beneficiary, you may not change your beneficiary designation and may not be able to withdraw/transfer your assets out of the plan unless you provide Sun Life Financial with the irrevocable beneficiary's written consent.

To avoid this restriction and make your beneficiary designation revocable you must check here:

Revocable Beneficiary

Note: To appoint a trustee for a beneficiary who is a minor, please complete the 'Appointment of trustee for a minor beneficiary' form. In Quebec, any amount payable to a minor beneficiary during his/her minority will be paid to the parent(s) or legal guardian on his/her behalf.

3 Contingent beneficiary appointment

Complete this section to appoint a contingent (secondary) beneficiary for your account.

If there is no surviving beneficiary at the time of my death, I declare that the following contingent beneficiary shall receive all benefits due on my death in accordance with any applicable legislation. If there is no surviving contingent beneficiary at the time of my death, the proceeds shall be paid to my estate.

I revoke all previous contingent beneficiary appointments.
